Certified teachers are needed to support the After-school Tutoring Program to aid in meeting the academic needs of students who are not able to attend school due to medical exclusions or suspension. Teachers must maintain their schedule. There must be two certified teachers present, one of which must be Special Education.

Travel may be required. However, all Special Education students will be provided District transportation. General Education students will be required to self-transport unless otherwise authorized by the Superintendent. All students using District transportation will adhere to the tutoring times listed below.

Interested applicants need to apply in writing. Please complete the form below and return to:
