Certified Teachers and Teaching Assistants are needed to support the academic needs of students who are not able to attend school due to medical exclusions, for Elementary students who are on OSS suspension, or for instances where circumstances prohibit assignment to the JSHS Tutoring Center.

Travel may be required. However, all Special Education students will be provided District transportation. General Education students will be required to self-transport unless otherwise authorized by the Superintendent. All students using District transportation will adhere to the tutoring times listed below.

Interested applicants need to apply in writing. Please complete the form below and return to:
