David C. Phelps Naval Corpsman Scholarship $250.00

David C. Phelps was a sincere, respected young man from Williamstown, NY who was an exceptional basketball player while at APW. David helped APW win the County Championship in 1965 over Central Square. After graduating, David enlisted in the Navy as a Hospital Corpsman as he wanted to serve his country during the Vietnam War while specializing in the medical field in the military. Doc Phelps lost his life from small arms fire on September 4, 1967 during Operation Swift while giving medical aid to a fallen Marine during this intense battle. David sacrificed his life to save another and left us with a lasting impression of the kindred person that he was. The David C Phelps Naval Corpsman Award is a one-time $250 scholarship awarded to any graduating senior who has participated in athletics and maintained a solid academic average. Special consideration will be given to a student who is entering any field in the medical industry or enlisting into any branch of the military. This scholarship will be awarded to a student showing the characteristics demonstrated by David of being an unselfish and dependable teammate, willing to give their all to help their team, and a person compassionate towards others and respected within the community.
