

ESSA Grants Overview for 2022-2023

Title IA – Improving Basic Programs

- Salaries for one Elementary Math and two Elementary Reading Interventionists, one STEM Teacher, and two School Social Workers
- Motivational Speaker for JSHS and staff professional development
- Materials and supplies for students eligible for McKinney-Vento services
- Funding for one private school with eligible students (less than 1% of overall funds)

Title IIA – Supporting Effective Instruction

- Mentoring for new teachers and administrators
- Collaborative work and/or professional development to align curriculum and instruction to updated State Learning Standards

Title IV – Student Support and Academic Enrichment

- Remaining portion of salary for STEM Teacher to promote science, technology, engineering and math
- Professional development for staff on Therapeutic Crisis Intervention for Schools (TCIS)

If you reviewed this overview, please take a moment to complete a brief survey for our records. Thank you!

[Click Here
for Public Comment
Survey](#)

- Grant application is due in September.
- Funding runs from 9/1 until 8/31
- How much money each school receives is determined by the economic status of students attending a school
- APW operates a school-wide program, benefiting all students not just those who are identified as eligible for intervention services
- Eligibility for Title I services is not based on income
- Submission of Final Program Report to ensure accountability and transparency